Dear Parents,

Míle buíochas to everyone who supported our 80's themed party night which took place in the Carnegie Court Hotel on Friday, 24th April. A fantastic night was had by everyone. Thanks so much to all our sponsors and supporters who provided prizes and sponsorship. Special thanks to the staff of the Carnegie Court Hotel and also to Derek Jordan and his band 'Simply 80's' and also our DJ on the night, Brian Monaghan. We raised a total of €5132.58 for the school on the night! Go raibh míle maith agaibh go léir!

Communion

A reminder that First Holy Communion will take place this Saturday, 9th May at 10am. This is a really special day with the children and their families invited to our school after mass to celebrate with tea/coffee and refreshments. A massive effort is needed for the anticipated guests. We need lots of help both on the evening before to set up the hall and also on the morning of the Communion too. The school hall will be available from 8pm the previous evening and the school will be open from 9.00am on Saturday. A note went home in the school bags last week regarding food and refreshments, please fill out the form and return it to the school as soon as possible.

Jersey Day

Bank of Ireland will be holding a Jersey Day in aid of GSBB in their Swords branch on Friday, 29th May, to coincide with that the staff and students of GSBB will also have a Jersey Day on the same day. Children can wear their favourite jersey or t-shirt and are each to bring in €2 so they can be in a draw to win a signed Dublin players jersey!

Rith for GSBB

Training for the annual 'Rith' for GSBB is taking place each Wednesday evening at 8pm in the school carpark. Stuart Russell from Junsu Taekwondo is training us once again this year so that we'll be ready for the big race on Saturday, 30th May in Malahide Castle. Everyone is more than welcome to join the training – walk, jog or run all in aid of a really good cause! Sponsorship cards will be available from the Oifig and also at the training sessions.

Annual Siúlóid

The annual Siúlóid is taking place on Sunday, 7th June in the Balheary Pitches in Swords, the theme this year is "Movie & Cartoon Characters". More details to follow closer to the time!

Bag2School Clothing Collection

The next collection will take place the week 8th-12th June. The two collections we've already held have raised almost €1,000 for the school. This will be the last collection for this school year and once again bags are available now from Linda in the Oifig. You can also put clothes in other large plastic bags too.

Go Raibh Míle Maith Agaibh.
