School Address: Coill na nÚll, Sord

Roll number: 20095C

School Patron: An Foras Pátrúnachta

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 07-09-20. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Gaelscoil Bhrian Bóirimhe admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

The Irish language version of this policy will take precedence in the case of a discrepancy.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Gaelscoil Bhrian Bóirimhe is an all-Irish primary school under An Foras Pátrúnachta. It is a co-educational school established in 1999 and has an interdenominational ethos.

The promotion of Irish is a primary objective of the school. We welcome all children regardless of their background, beliefs or special needs.

Gaelscoil Bhrian Bóirimhe strives to provide the highest standards in Irish medium education, where the child is central and where we seek to develop the whole child. Emphasis is placed on the individual child and each child is treated with justice. Self-respect as well as respect for others and other cultures is promoted at all times.

Pride of place is given to our Gaelic Heritage as a living vibrant culture and children are encouraged to take this with them and to spread it in their own lives. Priority is given to Gaelic games, music and dance.

Gaeilge is the first language of the school and it is expected that everyone, including pupils, teachers, parents and visitors will speak it in the school environment and while attending school related activities.

Families who wish to raise their children through Irish and those who are doing so already, are especially welcome.

The school adheres to a policy of early immersion education in order to give the children a good start in Irish language acquisition. To this end, English is not taught until the second term in senior infants. This helps the children acquire sufficient language skills to learn through the medium of Irish.

The Board of Management operates through the medium of Irish. All communication in the school is through Irish. Bi-lingual versions are made available where necessary but Irish is always first (notices, letters, notes etc.).

Gaelscoil Bhrian Bóroimhe recognises religious, cultural, racial and individual diversity. Children are not refused admission based on any of these differences. Special recognition is afforded to the Christian Spirit. Gaelscoil Bhrian Bóroimhe promotes a co-operative Catholic/Protestant ethos. (A copy of the patron's definition is attached)

The school acknowledges the important role of the various partners in education and actively promotes open communication between pupils, parents, teachers, and the wider school community.

School business is conducted in a sensible and professional manner, based on the rules laid down and on best practice. It is always conducted in the best interest of the pupils.

School begins at 8.50a.m. and ends at 1.30p.m. for infants and at 2.30p.m. for classes 1-6.

The school uniform is a royal blue tracksuit with a yellow/gold polo-shirt and is available through the school. The uniform must be worn for school and for school related activities.

Shoes with non-marking soles must be worn. Jewellery is not permitted as it can prove hazardous when children are running about or playing games. The exception to this is one stud earring per ear.

There are two breaks daily and children should have lunch for both. A healthy lunch policy is promoted in the school. Fizzy drinks, crisps, sweets and chewing-gum are not permitted. Glass bottles are not allowed.
